

THE GOLF COURSE AT KIRKBRÆ-JUNE 24, 2019

A championship course designed for every golfer. Nestled in beautiful Blackstone Valley, Kirkbrae is a par 71 championship golf course that offers fun and challenging play to everyone who loves the game. Kirkbrae was originally designed in 1960 by renowned architect Geoffrey Cornish. Over the years we've evolved Cornish's work – continually improving the course to suit the preferences of our members. Today, Kirkbrae is considered one of the best golf courses in New England.

Rhode Island Health Care Association (RIHCA) is a non-profit organization and represents 67 nursing homes in the state. RIHCA works with long term care providers to promote policies that ensure the independence, choice and dignity of those living in long term settings. Proceeds from the RIHCA annual golf tournament help fund continuing education and culture change for all RIHCA members and associate business members.
